Bugatti Veyron Grand Sport L'Or Blanc

The nice thing is that the car never ceases to amaze. Today, for example, was made in Berlin, in the laboratories of Königliche Porzellan-Manufaktur, the Bugatti Veyron Grand Sport L'Or Blanc body and interior.

White and blue.

Watching Grand Sport L'Or Blanc, to capture the attention is the incredible painting, the body that makes it seem as if it were all directly in porcelain. To achieve this, the center of the Bugatti design was inspired by the curves and hairpins of the Stelvio Pass – so say, at least – using, in preparation, a special adhesive tape strips in Japan more than five meters long, allowing to verify the final effect before the final painting.

Hand painted.

Once the guidelines established by the Japanese band, the skilled craftsmen hand-draw with blue enamel decoration, a process that requires three weeks of work. Eventually, the entire body is painted with five coats of clear. On the body of the car, outside, finally, twelve special porcelain are applied, including hub caps, oil filler cap, the lid of the petrol tank.

Elephant rampant.

Inside, in addition to the inserts on the sides of the center console, with the porcelain was also made the panel between the seats embossed with the famous prancing elephant designed by the sculptor Rembrandt Bugatti, Ettore's brother, used as a mascot on the radiator of the Royale. On top of the center console, finally, is inserted a plate – porcelain, ça va sans dire – with the edges finished with a diamond polishing experienced for the first time since Königliche Porzellan-Manufaktur, which is part of a set of small nic Bugatti designed specifically for customers.

Last retail price.

Undoubtedly fascinating, the Veyron Grand Sport L'Or Blanc. Obviously, the price is adequate to the exclusivity of the car, a true work of art on four wheels (a work of art by over 400 km / h, by the way). The figure of 1.65 million. Do not specify whether with or without VAT, but it does not matter (it is usually not, anyway).
